Aman Gupta, co-founder of boAt and a Shark Tank judge, joined the official delegation for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's two-day trip to Paris. He posted a few pictures on the microblogging platform Twitter along with a long, sentinel message. "boAt was established when I turned 36. I started with dad at 23, and I learnt a lot of things. I think I should write a book called 'What they don't teach you at Indian business schools.' BoAt has put a minimum valuation cap of around $1.2 billion as part of this funding, according to a report from ET.

Co-founder of Mamaearth

A Corporate trainer turned artist cum entrepreneur Ghazal Alagh, co-founded Mamaearth, driven by the passion for making early parenting, stress-free. As the Co-Founder and Chief Mama at Mamaearth, India's first toxin-free baby care brand, Ghazal is responsible for product development and community management. She works closely with a large number of mothers to develop a product line that addresses problems that moms face on a daily basis. The idea of a 100% toxin-free baby products brand came to Ghazal when she became a mom and had a difficult time finding chemical-free products for her son, Agastya.

Vineeta Singh is an Indian entrepreneur and CEO and co-founder of Sugar Cosmetics. She has been a shark (i.e. judge/investor) on the business reality TV show Shark Tank India since the show started airing on SonyLIV in 2021. In 2007, Singh founded her first start-up Quetzal. However, the idea of providing background verification checks to recruiters failed to succeed. She started her second start-up Fab-Bag in 2012, a subscription platform that provided monthly deliveries of beauty products. Her third start-up, Sugar Cosmetics, Singh founded together with her husband in 2015. The company sells cosmetics and personal care products geared towards the Indian market.
